

Job Searching in Atlanta

First, you should join a bar association in Georgia to obtain access to community information and events. You will find a wealth of information and networking opportunities. Some bar associations hold professional development programming and social events, offer mentoring programs, and provide job search assistance. Join! It is a great way to get involved and meet attorneys in the local legal community.

Selected Bar Associations:

State Bar of Georgia	www.gabar.org
Atlanta Bar Association	www.atlantabar.org
Georgia Trial Lawyers Association	www.gtla.org
Georgia Assoc. of Black Women Attorneys	www.gabwa.org

Second, between December and July, we can get you Reciprocity with a participating law school in Georgia to visit their career services office and look at their job postings. To find out the reciprocity policy of a particular law school, visit: www.nalp.org (click on "Resource Center" and "Toolkit for Career Services"). Reciprocity is usually available for only 3 months. If you are planning to study for the bar in Georgia, let the CDO know and we can initiate a reciprocity request for you.

Third, visit the Intercollegiate Job Bank, an online database maintained by Brigham Young University Law School. The Intercollegiate Job Bank contains job postings from a large number of law schools throughout the country, including three law schools in Georgia. The site is updated monthly. To access the site, visit the CDO website at: www.law.miami/cdo (click on "Current Students" and "Online Job Posting Database"). The site is password protected. Please contact the CDO for the username and password.

Fourth, job postings are listed on various websites including city, county, and state official web pages.

Selected Websites:

www.georgia.gov	www.georgiacourts.org
www.atlantaga.gov	http://thejobsite.org
www.atlanta.about.com	http://law.ga.gov
www.atlantabar.legalstaff.com	www.gpdsc.com/aboutus-employment.htm

Fifth, local newspapers contain job ads and can give you a feel for the current business environment.

Selected Newspapers:

Atlanta Journal-Constitution	www.ajc.com
Atlanta Business Chronicle	www.bizjournals.com/atlanta
Daily Report	www.dailyreportonline.com
Creative Loafing	www.atlanta.creativeloafing.com

Starting Salaries in Georgia*:

Firms of 2-10 Lawyers:	Firms of 11-25 Lawyers:	Firms of 26-50 Lawyers:	Firms of 51-100 Lawyers:	Government Positions:
Median: $55,000 Mean: $60,829	Median: $63,000 Mean: $72,787	Median: $80,000 Mean: $86,605	Median: $87,500 Mean: $102,045	Median: $48,000 Mean: $47,828

Jobs & JD's Employment and Salaries of New Law Graduates, Class of 2007 (2008 NALP)*

Number of Firms in Atlanta:

348 Firms with 2-9 Lawyers
90 Firms with 10-24 Lawyers
17 Firms with 25-49 Lawyers
23 Firms with 50-99 Lawyers

 Martindale.com

Job Searching in Austin

First, you should join a bar association in Texas to obtain access to community information and events. You will find a wealth of information and networking opportunities. Some bar associations hold professional development programming and social events, offer mentoring programs, and provide job search assistance. Join! It is a great way to get involved and meet attorneys in the local legal community.

Selected Bar Associations:

State Bar of Texas	www.texasbar.com
Austin Bar Association	www.travisbar.com
Austin Young Lawyers Assoc.	www.ayla.org
Hispanic Bar Assoc. of Austin	www.hispanicbaraustin.com

Second, between December and July, we can get you Reciprocity with a participating law school in Texas to visit their career services office and look at their job postings. To find out the reciprocity policy of a particular law school, visit: www.nalp.org (click on "Resource Center" and "Toolkit for Career Services"). Reciprocity is usually available for only 3 months. If you are planning to study for the bar in Texas, let the CDO know and we can initiate a reciprocity request for you.

Third, visit the Intercollegiate Job Bank, an online database maintained by Brigham Young University Law School. The Intercollegiate Job Bank contains job postings from a large number of law schools throughout the country, including eight law schools in Texas. The site is updated monthly. To access the site, visit the CDO website at: www.law.miami/cdo (click on "Current Students" and "Online Job Posting Database"). The site is password protected. Please contact the CDO for the username and password.

Fourth, job postings are listed on various websites including city, county, and state official web pages.

Selected Websites:

www.monster.com/us/texas/austin	www.oag.state.tx.us
www.co.travis.tx.us	www.texasonline.com
www.bizjournals.com/austin
www.helloaustin.com

Fifth, local newspapers contain job ads and can give you a feel for the current business environment.

Selected Newspapers:

Austin American-Statesman	www.statesman.com
The Austin Chronicle	www.austinchronicle.com
The Austin Business Journal	www.bizjournals.com/austin
Texas Lawyer	www.texaslawyer.com

Starting Salaries in Texas*:

Firms of 2-10 Lawyers:	Firms of 11-25 Lawyers:	Firms of 26-50 Lawyers:	Firms of 51-100 Lawyers:	Government Positions:
Median: $60,000	Median: $75,000	Median: $85,000	Median: $121,000	Median: $51,000
Mean: $63,097	Mean: $80,028	Mean: $95,964	Mean: $115,947	Mean: $51,305

Jobs & JD's Employment and Salaries of New Law Graduates, Class of 2007 (2008 NALP)*

Number of Firms in Austin:

148 Firms with 2-9 Lawyers
42 Firms with 10-24 Lawyers
16 Firms with 25-49 Lawyers
14 Firms with 50-99 Lawyers

 Martindale.com

Job Searching in Boston

First, you should join a bar association in Massachusetts to obtain access to community information and events. You will find a wealth of information and networking opportunities. Some bar associations hold professional development programming and social events, offer mentoring programs, and provide job search assistance. Join! It is a great way to get involved and meet attorneys in the local legal community.

Selected Bar Associations:

Boston Bar Association	www.bostonbar.org
Massachusetts Bar Association	www.massbar.org
Massachusetts Black Lawyers Assoc.	www.massblacklawyers.org
Mass. Assoc. of Criminal Defense Lawyers	www.macdl.com

Second, between December and July, we can get you Reciprocity with a participating law school in Massachusetts to visit their career services office and look at their job postings. To find out the reciprocity policy of a particular law school, visit: www.nalp.org (click on "Resource Center" and "Toolkit for Career Services"). Reciprocity is usually available for only 3 months. If you are planning to study for the bar in Massachusetts, let the CDO know and we can initiate a reciprocity request for you.

Third, visit the Intercollegiate Job Bank, an online database maintained by Brigham Young University Law School. The Intercollegiate Job Bank contains job postings from a large number of law schools throughout the country, including four law schools in Massachusetts. The site is updated monthly. To access the site, visit the CDO website at: www.law.miami/cdo (click on "Current Students" and "Online Job Posting Database"). The site is password protected. Please contact the CDO for the username and password.

Fourth, job postings are listed on various websites including city, county, and state official web pages.

Selected Websites:

www.bostonjobsources.com	www.cityofboston.gov/jobs
www.mass.gov	www.mass.gov/courts/jobs
www.masslaw.com	www.mass.gov/cpcs/pdpage.htm
www.federaljobsearch.com/Massachusetts

Fifth, local newspapers contain job ads and can give you a feel for the current business environment.

Selected Newspapers:

The Boston Globe	www.boston.com/news/globe
Boston Business Journal	www.bizjournals.com/boston
Boston Herald	www.bostonherald.com
The Daily Free Press	www.dailyfreepress.com
Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly	www.masslaw.com

Starting Salaries in Massachusetts*:

Firms of 2-10 Lawyers:	Firms of 11-25 Lawyers:	Firms of 26-50 Lawyers:	Firms of 51-100 Lawyers:	Government Positions:
Median: $50,500	Median: $61,250	Median: $90,000	Median: $85,000	Median: $37,500
Mean: $55,801	Mean: $61,111	Mean: $104,643	Mean: $87,500	Mean: $45,359

Jobs & JD's Employment and Salaries of New Law Graduates, Class of 2007 (2008 NALP)*

Number of Firms in Boston:

247 Firms with 2-9 Lawyers
72 Firms with 10-24 Lawyers
41 Firms with 25-49 Lawyers
18 Firms with 50-99 Lawyers

 Martindale.com

Job Searching in Chicago

First, you should join a bar association in Illinois to obtain access to community information and events. You will find a wealth of information and networking opportunities. Some bar associations hold professional development programming and social events, offer mentoring programs, and provide job search assistance. Join! It is a great way to get involved and meet attorneys in the local legal community.

Selected Bar Associations:

Illinois State Bar Association	www.isba.org
Chicago Bar Association	www.chicagobar.org
Cook County Bar Association	www.cookcountybar.org
Illinois Prosecutors Bar Assoc.	www.ipba.net

Second, between December and July, we can get you Reciprocity with a participating law school in the Chicago metro area to visit their career services office and look at their job postings. To find out the reciprocity policy of a particular law school, visit: www.nalp.org (click on "Resource Center" and "Toolkit for Career Services"). Reciprocity is usually available for only 3 months. If you are planning to study for the bar in Illinois, let the CDO know and we can initiate a reciprocity request for you.

Third, visit the Intercollegiate Job Bank, an online database maintained by Brigham Young University Law School. The Intercollegiate Job Bank contains job postings from a large number of law schools throughout the country, including four law schools in Illinois. The site is updated monthly. To access the site, visit the CDO website at: www.law.miami/cdo (click on "Current Students" and "Online Job Posting Database"). The site is password protected. Please contact the CDO for the username and password.

Fourth, job postings are listed on various websites including city, county, and state official web pages.

Selected Websites:

www.chicagojobs.com
www.cookcountygov.com
www.jobsinchicago.com
www.cityofchicago.org/law

Fifth, local newspapers contain job ads and can give you a feel for the current business environment.

Selected Newspapers:

Chicago Tribune	www.chicagotribune.com
Chicago Law Bulletin	www.lawbulletin.com
Crain's Chicago Business	www.chicagobusiness.com
Chicago Sun Times	www.suntimes.com

Starting Salaries in Illinois*:

Firms of 2-10 Lawyers:	Firms of 11-25 Lawyers:	Firms of 26-50 Lawyers:	Firms of 51-100 Lawyers:	Government Positions:
Median: $52,000	Median: $66,750	Median: $70,000	Median: $137,500	Median: $50,250
Mean: $55,915	Mean: $70,485	Mean: $77,351	Mean: $123,714	Mean: $52,679

Jobs & JD's Employment and Salaries of New Law Graduates, Class of 2007 (2008 NALP)*

Number of Firms in Chicago:

380 Firms with 2-9 Lawyers
122 Firms with 10-24 Lawyers
46 Firms with 25-49 Lawyers
31 Firms with 50-99 Lawyers

 Martindale.com

Job Searching in Dallas

First, you should join a bar association in Texas to obtain access to community information and events. You will find a wealth of information and networking opportunities. Some bar associations hold professional development programming and social events, offer mentoring programs, and provide job search assistance. Join! It is a great way to get involved and meet attorneys in the local legal community.

Selected Bar Associations:

State Bar of Texas	www.texasbar.com
Dallas Bar Association	www.dallasbar.com
Texas Trial Lawyers Association	www.ttla.com
Dallas Hispanic Bar Association	www.dallashispanicbar.com

Second, between December and July, we can get you Reciprocity with a participating law school in Texas to visit their career services office and look at their job postings. To find out the reciprocity policy of a particular law school, visit: www.nalp.org (click on "Resource Center" and "Toolkit for Career Services"). Reciprocity is usually available for only 3 months. If you are planning to study for the bar in Texas, let the CDO know and we can initiate a reciprocity request for you.

Third, visit the Intercollegiate Job Bank, an online database maintained by Brigham Young University Law School. The Intercollegiate Job Bank contains job postings from a large number of law schools throughout the country, including eight law schools in Texas. The site is updated monthly. To access the site, visit the CDO website at: www.law.miami/cdo (click on "Current Students" and "Online Job Posting Database"). The site is password protected. Please contact the CDO for the username and password.

Fourth, job postings are listed on various websites including city, county, and state official web pages.

Selected Websites:

www.jobsindallas.com	www.oag.state.tx.us
www.dallas.4jobs.com	www.texasonline.com
www.dallascounty.org
www.hellodallas.com/jobs

Fifth, local newspapers contain job ads and can give you a feel for the current business environment.

Selected Newspapers:

The Dallas Morning News	www.dallasnews.com
Dallas Globe	www.dallasglobe.com
Dallas Observer	www.dallasobserver.com
Dallas Business Journal	www.bizjournals.com/dallas
Texas Lawyer	www.texaslawyer.com

Starting Salaries in Texas*:

Firms of 2-10 Lawyers: Median: $60,000 Mean: $63,097	Firms of 11-25 Lawyers: Median: $75,000 Mean: $80,028	Firms of 26-50 Lawyers: Median: $85,000 Mean: $95,964	Firms of 51-100 Lawyers: Median: $121,000 Mean: $115,947	Government Positions: Median: $51,000 Mean: $51,305
---	--	--	---	--

Jobs & JD's Employment and Salaries of New Law Graduates, Class of 2007 (2008 NALP)*

Number of Firms in Dallas:

252 Firms with 2-9 Lawyers
65 Firms with 10-24 Lawyers
37 Firms with 25-49 Lawyers
18 Firms with 50-99 Lawyers

 Martindale.com

Job Searching in Denver

First, you should join a bar association in Colorado to obtain access to community information and events. You will find a wealth of information and networking opportunities. Some bar associations hold professional development programming and social events, offer mentoring programs, and provide job search assistance. Join! It is a great way to get involved and meet attorneys in the local legal community.

Selected Bar Associations:

Colorado Bar Association	www.cobar.org
Denver Bar Association	www.denbar.org
Colorado Trial Lawyer's Assoc.	www.ctlanet.org
Colorado Hispanic Bar Assoc.	www.chba.net

Second, between December and July, we can get you Reciprocity with a participating law school in Colorado to visit their career services office and look at their job postings. To find out the reciprocity policy of a particular law school, visit: www.nalp.org (click on "Resource Center" and "Toolkit for Career Services"). Reciprocity is usually available for only 3 months. If you are planning to study for the bar in Colorado, let the CDO know and we can initiate a reciprocity request for you.

Third, visit the Intercollegiate Job Bank, an online database maintained by Brigham Young University Law School. The Intercollegiate Job Bank contains job postings from a large number of law schools throughout the country, including two law schools in Colorado. The site is updated monthly. To access the site, visit the CDO website at: www.law.miami/cdo (click on "Current Students" and "Online Job Posting Database"). The site is password protected. Please contact the CDO for the username and password.

Fourth, job postings are listed on various websites including city, county, and state official web pages.

Selected Websites:

www.cobar.legalstaff.com
<http://legal.jobs.net/Colorado.htm>
www.colorado.gov
www.courts.state.co.us

Fifth, local newspapers contain job ads and can give you a feel for the current business environment.

Selected Newspapers:

The Denver Post	www.denverpost.com
The Denver Business Journal	www.bizjournals.com/denver
Denver Rocky Mountain News	www.rockymountainnews.com

Starting Salaries in Colorado*:

Firms of 2-10 Lawyers: Median: $60,000 Mean: $62,166	Firms of 11-25 Lawyers: Median: $63,000 Mean: $69,741	Firms of 26-50 Lawyers: Median: $92,500 Mean: $83,858	Firms of 51-100 Lawyers: Median: $105,000 Mean: $103,500	Government Positions: Median: $50,000 Mean: $52,078
---	--	--	---	--

Jobs & JD's Employment and Salaries of New Law Graduates, Class of 2007 (2008 NALP)*

Number of Firms in Denver:

265 Firms with 2-9 Lawyers
84 Firms with 10-24 Lawyers
17 Firms with 25-49 Lawyers
11 Firms with 50-99 Lawyers

 Martindale.com

Job Searching in Houston

First, you should join a bar association in Texas to obtain access to community information and events. You will find a wealth of information and networking opportunities. Some bar associations hold professional development programming and social events, offer mentoring programs, and provide job search assistance. Join! It is a great way to get involved and meet attorneys in the local legal community.

Selected Bar Associations:

State Bar of Texas	www.texasbar.com
Houston Bar Association	www.hba.com
Assoc. of Women Attorneys	www.awahouston.com
Hispanic Bar Assoc. of Houston	www.hispahouston.com

Second, between December and July, we can get you Reciprocity with a participating law school in Texas to visit their career services office and look at their job postings. To find out the reciprocity policy of a particular law school, visit: www.nalp.org (click on "Resource Center" and "Toolkit for Career Services"). Reciprocity is usually available for only 3 months. If you are planning to study for the bar in Texas, let the CDO know and we can initiate a reciprocity request for you.

Third, visit the Intercollegiate Job Bank, an online database maintained by Brigham Young University Law School. The Intercollegiate Job Bank contains job postings from a large number of law schools throughout the country, including eight law schools in Texas. The site is updated monthly. To access the site, visit the CDO website at: www.law.miami/cdo (click on "Current Students" and "Online Job Posting Database"). The site is password protected. Please contact the CDO for the username and password.

Fourth, job postings are listed on various websites including city, county, and state official web pages.

Selected Websites:

www.houstontx.gov
www.houstonjobs.com
www.houston-job-search.com
http://legal.careers.com/Texas-Houston.htm

Fifth, local newspapers contain job ads and can give you a feel for the current business environment.

Selected Newspapers:

Houston Chronicle	www.chron.com
Houston Business Journal	www.bizjournals.com/houston
Houston Press	www.houstonpress.com
Houston Herald	www.houstonherald.com
Texas Lawyer	www.texaslawyer.com

Starting Salaries in Texas*:

Firms of 2-10 Lawyers:	Firms of 11-25 Lawyers:	Firms of 26-50 Lawyers:	Firms of 51-100 Lawyers:	Government Positions:
Median: $60,000	Median: $75,000	Median: $85,000	Median: $121,000	Median: $51,000
Mean: $63,097	Mean: $80,028	Mean: $95,964	Mean: $115,947	Mean: $51,305

Jobs & JD's Employment and Salaries of New Law Graduates, Class of 2007 (2008 NALP)*

Number of Firms in Houston:

331 Firms with 2-9 Lawyers
90 Firms with 10-24 Lawyers
41 Firms with 25-49 Lawyers
17 Firms with 50-99 Lawyers

 Martindale.com

Job Searching in Los Angeles

First, you should join a bar association in California to obtain access to community information and events. You will find a wealth of information and networking opportunities. Some bar associations hold professional development programming and social events, offer mentoring programs, and provide job search assistance. Join! It is a great way to get involved and meet attorneys in the local legal community.

Selected Bar Associations:

California Bar Association	www.calbar.ca.gov
Los Angeles County Bar Association	www.lacba.org
Women Lawyers Assoc. of Los Angeles	www.wlala.org
Mexican American Bar Association	www.mabalawyers.org

Second, between December and July, we can get you Reciprocity with a participating law school in California to visit their career services office and look at their job postings. To find out the reciprocity policy of a particular law school, visit: www.nalp.org (click on "Resource Center" and "Toolkit for Career Services"). Reciprocity is usually available for only 3 months. If you are planning to study for the bar in California, let the CDO know and we can initiate a reciprocity request for you.

Third, visit the Intercollegiate Job Bank, an online database maintained by Brigham Young University Law School. The Intercollegiate Job Bank contains job postings from a large number of law schools throughout the country, including ten law schools in California. The site is updated monthly. To access the site, visit the CDO website at: www.law.miami/cdo (click on "Current Students" and "Online Job Posting Database"). The site is password protected. Please contact the CDO for the username and password.

Fourth, job postings are listed on various websites including city, county, and state official web pages.

Selected Websites:

www.ca.gov
www.lacity.org
www.losangeles.4jobs.com
www.federaljobsearch.com/California

Fifth, local newspapers contain job ads and can give you a feel for the current business environment.

Selected Newspapers:

Los Angeles Times	www.latimes.com
LA Weekly	www.laweekly.com
Los Angeles Daily News	www.dailynews.com
Daily Variety	www.variety.com
Los Angeles Daily Journal	www.dailyjournal.com

Starting Salaries in California*:

Firms of 2-10 Lawyers: Median: $65,000 Mean: $68,196	Firms of 11-25 Lawyers: Median: $72,000 Mean: $76,979	Firms of 26-50 Lawyers: Median: $80,000 Mean: $90,081	Firms of 51-100 Lawyers: Median: $103,500 Mean: $107,480	Government Positions: Median: $60,638 Mean: $62,103
---	--	--	---	--

*Jobs & JD's Employment and Salaries of New Law Graduates, Class of 2007 (2008 NALP)

Number of Firms in Los Angeles:

559 Firms with 2-9 Lawyers
173 Firms with 10-24 Lawyers
58 Firms with 25-49 Lawyers
32 Firms with 50-99 Lawyers

 Martindale.com

Job Searching in New York City

First, you should join a bar association in New York to obtain access to community information and events. You will find a wealth of information and networking opportunities. Some bar associations hold professional development programming and social events, offer mentoring programs, and provide job search assistance. Join! It is a great way to get involved and meet attorneys in the local legal community.

Selected Bar Associations:

New York State Bar Association	www.nysba.org
New York City Bar Association	www.nycbar.org
New York State Trial Lawyers Assoc.	www.nystla.org
Women's Bar Assoc. of New York	www.wbasny.org

Second, between December and July, we can get you Reciprocity with a participating law school in New York to visit their career services office and look at their job postings. To find out the reciprocity policy of a particular law school, visit: www.nalp.org (click on "Resource Center" and "Toolkit for Career Services"). Reciprocity is usually available for only 3 months. If you are planning to study for the bar in New York, let the CDO know and we can initiate a reciprocity request for you.

Third, visit the Intercollegiate Job Bank, an online database maintained by Brigham Young University Law School. The Intercollegiate Job Bank contains job postings from a large number of law schools throughout the country, including four law schools in New York. The site is updated monthly. To access the site, visit the CDO website at: www.law.miami/cdo (click on "Current Students" and "Online Job Posting Database"). The site is password protected. Please contact the CDO for the username and password.

Fourth, job postings are listed on various websites including city, county, and state official web pages.

Selected Websites:

www.jobmarket.nytimes.com/pages/jobs
www.newyorkjobs.com
www.nycareers.com
www.nyc.gov

Fifth, local newspapers contain job ads and can give you a feel for the current business environment.

Selected Newspapers:

New York Lawyer	www.nylawyer.com
The New York Times	www.nytimes.com
The Village Voice	www.villagevoice.com
New York Daily News	www.nydailynews.com

Starting Salaries in New York State*:

Firms of 2-10 Lawyers:	Firms of 11-25 Lawyers:	Firms of 26-50 Lawyers:	Firms of 51-100 Lawyers:	Government Positions:
Median: $55,000	Median: $65,000	Median: $70,000	Median: $90,000	Median: $53,000
Mean: $58,470	Mean: $67,961	Mean: $79,299	Mean: $102,308	Mean: $53,843

Jobs & JD's Employment and Salaries of New Law Graduates, Class of 2007 (2008 NALP)*

Number of Firms in New York City:

798 Firms with 2-9 Lawyers
252 Firms with 10-24 Lawyers
114 Firms with 25-49 Lawyers
65 Firms with 50-99 Lawyers

 Martindale.com

Job Searching in Philadelphia

First, you should join a bar association in Pennsylvania to obtain access to community information and events. You will find a wealth of information and networking opportunities. Some bar associations hold professional development programming and social events, offer mentoring programs, and provide job search assistance. Join! It is a great way to get involved and meet attorneys in the local legal community.

Selected Bar Associations:

Pennsylvania Bar Association	www.pabar.org
Philadelphia Bar Association	www.philabar.org
Philadelphia Trial Lawyers Association	www.philatla.org
Hispanic Bar Association of Pennsylvania	www.hbapa.com

Second, between December and July, we can get you Reciprocity with a participating law school in Pennsylvania to visit their career services office and look at their job postings. To find out the reciprocity policy of a particular law school, visit: www.nalp.org (click on "Resource Center" and "Toolkit for Career Services"). Reciprocity is usually available for only 3 months. If you are planning to study for the bar in Pennsylvania, let the CDO know and we can initiate a reciprocity request for you.

Third, visit the Intercollegiate Job Bank, an online database maintained by Brigham Young University Law School. The Intercollegiate Job Bank contains job postings from a large number of law schools throughout the country, including four law schools in Pennsylvania. The site is updated monthly. To access the site, visit the CDO website at: www.law.miami/cdo (click on "Current Students" and "Online Job Posting Database"). The site is password protected. Please contact the CDO for the username and password.

Fourth, job postings are listed on various websites including city, county, and state official web pages.

Selected Websites:

<http://pabar.legalstaff.com>
www.careers.findlaw.com
www.indeed.com
www.state.pa.us

Fifth, local newspapers contain job ads and can give you a feel for the current business environment.

Selected Newspapers:

The Philadelphia Inquirer	www.philly.com/inquirer
Philadelphia Daily News	www.philly.com
The Business Journal of Philadelphia	www.bizjournals.com/philadelphia
Philadelphia City Paper	www.citypaper.net
Pennsylvania Law Weekly	www.palawweekly.com

Starting Salaries in Pennsylvania*:

Firms of 2-10 Lawyers:	Firms of 11-25 Lawyers:	Firms of 26-50 Lawyers:	Firms of 51-100 Lawyers:	Government Positions:
Median: $50,000 Mean: $54,993	Median: $60,000 Mean: $70,860	Median: $80,000 Mean: $81,385	Median: $82,500 Mean: $88,547	Median: $48,250 Mean: $47,016

Jobs & JD's Employment and Salaries of New Law Graduates, Class of 2007 (2008 NALP)*

Number of Firms in Philadelphia:

212 Firms with 2-9 Lawyers
85 Firms with 10-24 Lawyers
32 Firms with 25-49 Lawyers
16 Firms with 50-99 Lawyers

 Martindale.com*

Job Searching in Phoenix

First, you should join a bar association in Arizona to obtain access to community information and events. You will find a wealth of information and networking opportunities. Some bar associations hold professional development programming and social events, offer mentoring programs, and provide job search assistance. Join! It is a great way to get involved and meet attorneys in the local legal community.

Selected Bar Associations:

State Bar of Arizona	www.azbar.org
Maricopa County Bar Association	www.maricopabar.org
Los Abogados Bar Association	www.losabogados.org
Arizona Women Lawyers Assoc.	www.awla-maricopa.org

Second, between December and July, we can get you Reciprocity with a participating law school in Arizona to visit their career services office and look at their job postings. To find out the reciprocity policy of a particular law school, visit: www.nalp.org (click on "Resource Center" and "Toolkit for Career Services"). Reciprocity is usually available for only 3 months. If you are planning to study for the bar in Arizona, let the CDO know and we can initiate a reciprocity request for you.

Third, visit the Intercollegiate Job Bank, an online database maintained by Brigham Young University Law School. The Intercollegiate Job Bank contains job postings from a large number of law schools throughout the country, including two law schools in Arizona. The site is updated monthly. To access the site, visit the CDO website at: www.law.miami/cdo (click on "Current Students" and "Online Job Posting Database"). The site is password protected. Please contact the CDO for the username and password.

Fourth, job postings are listed on various websites including city, county, and state official web pages.

Selected Websites:

www.arizona.gov
www.phoenix.gov
www.job-hunt.org/jobs/arizona.shtml
www.azbar.legalstaff.com

Fifth, local newspapers contain job ads and can give you a feel for the current business environment.

Selected Newspapers:

Arizona Capitol Times	www.azcapitoltimes.com
Phoenix New Times	www.phoenixnewtimes.com
The Business Journal of Phoenix	www.bizjournals.com/phoenix
Arizona Business Gazette	www.azcentral.com

Starting Salaries in Arizona*:

Firms of 2-10 Lawyers:	Firms of 11-25 Lawyers:	Firms of 26-50 Lawyers:	Firms of 51-100 Lawyers:	Government Positions:
Median: $65,000	Median: $72,000	Median: $79,000	Median: $105,000	Median: $56,950
Mean: $65,115	Mean: $73,308	Mean: $87,363	Mean: $101,000	Mean: $56,237

Jobs & JD's Employment and Salaries of New Law Graduates, Class of 2007 (2008 NALP)*

Number of Firms in Phoenix:

216 Firms with 2-9 Lawyers
36 Firms with 10-24 Lawyers
16 Firms with 25-49 Lawyers
13 Firms with 50-99 Lawyers

 Martindale.com

Job Searching in San Diego

First, you should join a bar association in California to obtain access to community information and events. You will find a wealth of information and networking opportunities. Some bar associations hold professional development programming and social events, offer mentoring programs, and provide job search assistance. Join! It is a great way to get involved and meet attorneys in the local legal community.

Selected Bar Associations:

California Bar Association	www.calbar.ca.gov
San Diego County Bar Assoc.	www.sdcbba.org
Lawyers Club of San Diego	www.lawyersclubsandiego.com
California Assoc. of Black Lawyers	www.calblacklawyers.org

Second, between December and July, we can get you Reciprocity with a participating law school in California to visit their career services office and look at their job postings. To find out the reciprocity policy of a particular law school, visit: www.nalp.org (click on "Resource Center" and "Toolkit for Career Services"). Reciprocity is usually available for only 3 months. If you are planning to study for the bar in California, let the CDO know and we can initiate a reciprocity request for you.

Third, visit the Intercollegiate Job Bank, an online database maintained by Brigham Young University Law School. The Intercollegiate Job Bank contains job postings from a large number of law schools throughout the country, including ten law schools in California. The site is updated monthly. To access the site, visit the CDO website at: www.law.miami/cdo (click on "Current Students" and "Online Job Posting Database"). The site is password protected. Please contact the CDO for the username and password.

Fourth, job postings are listed on various websites including city, county, and state official web pages.

Selected Websites:

www.ca.gov
www.sandiego.gov
www.caljobsources.com
www.sandiegocareers.com

Fifth, local newspapers contain job ads and can give you a feel for the current business environment.

Selected Newspapers:

San Diego Union-Tribune	www.signonsandiego.com
San Diego Reader	www.sdreader.com
San Diego Business Journal	www.sdbj.com
San Diego Daily Transcript	www.sddt.com

Starting Salaries in California*:

Firms of 2-10 Lawyers: Median: $65,000 Mean: $68,196	Firms of 11-25 Lawyers: Median: $72,000 Mean: $76,979	Firms of 26-50 Lawyers: Median: $80,000 Mean: $90,081	Firms of 51-100 Lawyers: Median: $103,500 Mean: $107,480	Government Positions: Median: $60,638 Mean: $62,103
---	--	--	---	--

Jobs & JD's Employment and Salaries of New Law Graduates, Class of 2007 (2008 NALP)*

Number of Firms in San Diego:

188 Firms with 2-9 Lawyers
44 Firms with 10-24 Lawyers
16 Firms with 25-49 Lawyers
17 Firms with 50-99 Lawyers

 Martindale.com

Job Searching in San Francisco

First, you should join a bar association in California to obtain access to community information and events. You will find a wealth of information and networking opportunities. Some bar associations hold professional development programming and social events, offer mentoring programs, and provide job search assistance. Join! It is a great way to get involved and meet attorneys in the local legal community.

Selected Bar Associations:

California Bar Association	www.calbar.ca.gov
The Bar Assoc. of San Francisco	www.sfbar.org
South Asian Bar Assoc. of Northern CA	www.southasianbar.org
California Assoc. of Black Lawyers	www.calblacklawyers.org

Second, between December and July, we can get you Reciprocity with a participating law school in California to visit their career services office and look at their job postings. To find out the reciprocity policy of a particular law school, visit: www.nalp.org (click on "Resource Center" and "Toolkit for Career Services"). Reciprocity is usually available for only 3 months. If you are planning to study for the bar in California, let the CDO know and we can apply for you.

Third, visit the Intercollegiate Job Bank, an online database maintained by Brigham Young University Law School. The Intercollegiate Job Bank contains job postings from a large number of law schools throughout the country, including ten law schools in California. The site is updated monthly. To access the site, visit the CDO website at: www.law.miami/cdo (click on "Current Students" and "Online Job Posting Database"). The site is password protected. Please contact the CDO for the username and password.

Fourth, job postings are listed on various websites including city, county, and state official web pages.

Selected Websites:

www.ca.gov
www.sfgate.com/jobs
www.ci.sf.ca.us (San Francisco Gov)
www.bayareacareers.com

Fifth, local newspapers contain job ads and can give you a feel for the current business environment.

Selected Newspapers:

San Francisco Chronicle	www.sfchron.com
SF Gate	www.sfgate.com
San Francisco Business Times	www.bizjournals.com/sanfrancisco
San Francisco Globe	www.sanfranciscoglobe.com
San Francisco Daily Journal	www.dailyjournal.com

Starting Salaries in California*:

Firms of 2-10 Lawyers:	Firms of 11-25 Lawyers:	Firms of 26-50 Lawyers:	Firms of 51-100 Lawyers:	Government Positions:
Median: $65,000	Median: $72,000	Median: $80,000	Median: $103,500	Median: $60,638
Mean: $68,196	Mean: $76,979	Mean: $90,081	Mean: $107,480	Mean: $62,103

Jobs & JD's Employment and Salaries of New Law Graduates, Class of 2007 (2008 NALP)*

Number of Firms in San Francisco:

300 Firms with 2-9 Lawyers
88 Firms with 10-24 Lawyers
26 Firms with 25-49 Lawyers
27 Firms with 50-99 Lawyers

 Martindale.com

Job Searching in Seattle

First, you should join a bar association in Washington to obtain access to community information and events. You will find a wealth of information and networking opportunities. Some bar associations hold professional development programming and social events, offer mentoring programs, and provide job search assistance. Join! It is a great way to get involved and meet attorneys in the local legal community.

Selected Bar Associations:

Washington State Bar Association	www.wsbar.org
King County Bar Association	www.kcba.org
Loren Miller Bar Association	www.lmba.net
Asian Bar Association of Washington	www.abaw.org

Second, between December and July, we can get you Reciprocity with a participating law school in Washington to visit their career services office and look at their job postings. To find out the reciprocity policy of a particular law school, visit: www.nalp.org (click on "Resource Center" and "Toolkit for Career Services"). Reciprocity is usually available for only 3 months. If you are planning to study for the bar in Washington, let the CDO know and we can initiate a reciprocity request for you.

Third, visit the Intercollegiate Job Bank, an online database maintained by Brigham Young University Law School. The Intercollegiate Job Bank contains job postings from a large number of law schools throughout the country, including three law schools in Washington. The site is updated monthly. To access the site, visit the CDO website at: www.law.miami/cdo (click on "Current Students" and "Online Job Posting Database"). The site is password protected. Please contact the CDO for the username and password.

Fourth, job postings are listed on various websites including city, county, and state official web pages.

Selected Websites:

www.seattleattorneyjobs.com
www.seattle.gov/law/jobs
www.indeed.com
www.hierosgamos.org

Fifth, local newspapers contain job ads and can give you a feel for the current business environment.

Selected Newspapers:

The Seattle Times	www.seattletimes.com
Seattle Post-Intelligencer	www.seattlepi.com
Puget Sound Business Journal	www.bizjournals.com/seattle
Seattle Weekly	www.seattleweekly.com

Starting Salaries in Washington*:

Firms of 2-10 Lawyers: Median: $50,000 Mean: $58,890	Firms of 11-25 Lawyers: Median: $65,000 Mean: $69,887	Firms of 26-50 Lawyers: Median: $95,000 Mean: $91,250	Firms of 51-100 Lawyers: Median: $97,500 Mean: $90,875	Government Positions: Median: $52,000 Mean: $53,761
---	--	--	---	--

Jobs & JD's Employment and Salaries of New Law Graduates, Class of 2007 (2008 NALP)*

Number of Firms in Seattle:

179 Firms with 2-9 Lawyers
43 Firms with 10-24 Lawyers
22 Firms with 25-49 Lawyers
17 Firms with 50-99 Lawyers

 Martindale.com

Job Searching in Tampa & Orlando

First, you should join a bar association in Florida to obtain access to community information and events. You will find a wealth of information and networking opportunities. Some bar associations hold professional development programming and social events, offer mentoring programs, and provide job search assistance. Join! It is a great way to get involved and meet attorneys in the local legal community.

Selected Bar Associations:

Florida Bar Association	www.flabar.org
Orange County Bar Association	www.orangecountybar.org
Hillsborough County Bar Association	www.hillsbar.com
Florida Association of Women Lawyers	www.fawl.org
Cuban-American Bar Association	www.cabaonline.com

Second, between December and July, we can get you Reciprocity with a participating law school in central Florida to visit their career services office and look at their job postings. To find out the reciprocity policy of a particular law school, visit: www.nalp.org (click on “Resource Center” and “Toolkit for Career Services”). Reciprocity is usually available for only 3 months. If you are planning to study for the bar in central Florida, let the CDO know and we can initiate a reciprocity request for you.

Third, visit the Intercollegiate Job Bank, an online database maintained by Brigham Young University Law School. The Intercollegiate Job Bank contains job postings from a large number of law schools throughout the country, including nine law schools in Florida. The site is updated monthly. To access the site, visit the CDO website at: www.law.miami/cdo (click on “Current Students” and “Online Job Posting Database”). The site is password protected. Please contact the CDO for the username and password.

Fourth, job postings are listed on various websites including city, county, and state official web pages.

Selected Websites:

www.hellotampa.com
www.careers.findlaw.com
www.orlandosentinel.com/classified/jobs

Fifth, local newspapers contain job ads and can give you a feel for the current business environment.

Selected Newspapers:

The Orlando Sentinel	www.orlandosentinel.com
Orlando Business Journal	www.bizjournals.com/orlando
Orlando Weekly	www.orlandoweekly.com
The Tampa Tribune	www.tampatrib.com
Tampa Bay Business Journal	www.bizjournals.com/tampabay
Gulf Coast Business Review	www.review.net

Starting Salaries in Florida*:

Firms of 2-10 Lawyers:	Firms of 11-25 Lawyers:	Firms of 26-50 Lawyers:	Firms of 51-100 Lawyers:	Government Positions:
Median: $55,000	Median: $64,000	Median: $70,000	Median: $70,000	Median: $41,000
Mean: $56,585	Mean: $64,033	Mean: $69,956	Mean: $76,038	Mean: $43,320

Jobs & JD's Employment and Salaries of New Law Graduates, Class of 2007 (2008 NALP)*

Number of Firms in Orlando:

150 Firms with 2-9 Lawyers
42 Firms with 10-24 Lawyers
15 Firms with 25-49 Lawyers
12 Firms with 50-99 Lawyers

Number of Firms in Tampa:

178 Firms with 2-9 Lawyers
41 Firms with 10-24 Lawyers
16 Firms with 25-49 Lawyers
13 Firms with 50-99 Lawyers

 Martindale.com

Job Searching in Washington, D.C.

First, you should join a bar association in Washington, D.C. to obtain access to community information and events. You will find a wealth of information and networking opportunities. Some bar associations hold professional development programming and social events, offer mentoring programs, and provide job search assistance. Join! It is a great way to get involved and meet attorneys in the local legal community.

Selected Bar Associations:

District of Columbia Bar Association	www.dcbbar.org
Bar Assoc. of the District of Columbia	www.badc.org
Hispanic Bar Assoc. of D.C.	www.hbadc.org
Women's Bar Assoc. of the District of Columbia	www.wbadc.org

Second, between December and July, we can get you Reciprocity with a participating law school in the Washington, D.C. metro area to visit their career services office and look at their job postings. To find out the reciprocity policy of a particular law school, visit: www.nalp.org (click on "Resource Center" and "Toolkit for Career Services"). Reciprocity is usually available for only 3 months. If you are planning to study for the bar in the Washington, D.C. metro area, let the CDO know and we can initiate a reciprocity request for you.

Third, visit the Intercollegiate Job Bank, an online database maintained by Brigham Young University Law School. The Intercollegiate Job Bank contains job postings from a large number of law schools throughout the country, including nine law schools in Washington D.C., Virginia, and Maryland. The site is updated monthly. To access the site, visit the CDO website at: www.law.miami/cdo (click on "Current Students" and "Online Job Posting Database"). The site is password protected. Please contact the CDO for the username and password.

Fourth, job postings are listed on various websites including city, county, and state official web pages.

Selected Websites:

www.dcjobs.com
www.jobsin Georgetown.com
www.employmentspot.com/state/dc.htm
www.dc.gov
<http://federalgovernmentjobs.us>

Fifth, local newspapers contain job ads and can give you a feel for the current business environment.

Selected Newspapers:

The Washington Post	www.washingtonpost.com
The Washington Times	www.washtimes.com
Washington City Guide	www.hellowashingtondc.com
The Hill	www.hillnews.com

Starting Salaries in Washington, D.C.*:

Firms of 2-10 Lawyers:	Firms of 11-25 Lawyers:	Firms of 26-50 Lawyers:	Firms of 51-100 Lawyers:	Government Positions:
Median: $61,980	Median: $92,500	Median: $127,500	Median: $135,000	Median: $55,706
Mean: $68,918	Mean: $95,773	Mean: $122,000	Mean: $136,222	Mean: $60,044

Jobs & JD's Employment and Salaries of New Law Graduates, Class of 2007 (2008 NALP)*

Number of Firms:

322 Firms with 2-9 Lawyers
126 Firms with 10-24 Lawyers
53 Firms with 25-49 Lawyers
45 Firms with 50-99 Lawyers

 Martindale.com

