UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI SCHOOL OF LAW
ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT PROGRAM

In reviewing your exams with your professors, try to identify your strength and weaknesses in the following areas:

1. Knowledge of substantive law.
2. Identification of issues on the exam (issue spotting).
3. Organization of exam answer (IRAAAAAC).
4. Complete analysis of issues (not “too conclusory”).
5. Writing.

Note: Good legal writing is nothing more than well-written good legal analysis.
