

AGNES C. REID

It is with great sorrow that the University of Miami School of Law notes the death of Agnes C. Reid, a dedicated friend and philanthropist, on February 27, 2009. Mrs. Reid, along with her late husband Harvey T. Reid, established the prestigious Harvey T. Reid Scholarship program at the School of Law in 1970.

The Reid Scholarships are awarded to outstanding members of the entering class who possess exemplary academic records, demonstrate leadership qualities, and exhibit the potential for making substantial contributions to the legal profession and society.

The memorial service for Mrs. Reid will be held on Friday, March 20, 2009 at 5:30 p.m. at the First Presbyterian Church of Fort Lauderdale, 401 S.E. 15th Avenue, Fort Lauderdale, FL 33301.

Please share with us your stories and/or photos of when you were a Reid Scholar so that we can forward them to Mr. and Mrs. Reid's niece, Laurie Wit.
