

Due to the generosity of the many donors to the nationally recognized Litigation Skills Program, each semester students in the class have the opportunity to earn prestigious scholarships and awards. The spring semester Litigation Skills Program produced an extremely talented group of students. Max Panoff, Jane Muir, Jeff James, Allison Perez, Joe Nascimento, Leigh-Ann Buchanan, Catherine Dorvil and Christina Ciccone had the opportunity to develop a full range of office and trial practice skills through classroom exercises and simulated courtroom trial experiences. Because of their hard work and dedication they earned scholarships and awards. They were selected because they demonstrated great promise in the area of trial practice and excellence in written and oral advocacy.

Allison Perez received the Honorable Theodore Klein Endowed Scholarship in the amount of $2200.

Max Panoff and Jane Muir each received the John F. Evans Memorial Scholarship in the amount of $2500.

Joe Nascimento received the Marco A. Vazquez Memorial Scholarship in the amount of $7500.

Catherine Dorvil and Christina Cicconi received the Florida Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers Award. This is a $250 cash award.

Leigh-Ann Buchanan received the Judge Philip Bloom Award in the amount of $1000.

Jeff James received the Kozyak Tropin & Throckmorton Scholarship in the amount of $10,000.
