

SPECIAL EVENT: end of year speaker! PLEASE COME! Freddie Pitts, one of the first individuals to be exonerated from death row by non-DNA evidence, is coming to the University of Miami School of Law to speak about his experience. Mr. Pitts will discuss how this and similar types of injustice can occur, as well as the importance of spreading awareness about preventing wrongful convictions. The event will also include a discussion with Professor Jones and Professor Mourer. Please join us for this exciting event!

WHEN: November 23, 2009 at 12:30 p.m.

WHERE: F209

Pizza will be served!