

H.O.P.E.

Helping Others Through Pro Bono Efforts

Public Interest Resource Center

University of Miami School of Law

Invites you to our Public Interest Luncheon Series

SARAH WOOD BORAK

Associate at Akerman Senterfitt

Wednesday, April 9th

12:30-2:00pm in Room A-110A

After starting at the Public Defender's Office, Ms. Borak joined Akerman Senterfitt to practice environmental law. Currently, Ms. Borak is the Co-Chair of the Dade County Bar Association's Legal Aid Committee, she is a member of the Young Lawyers Division of the Florida Bar Association, and she participates in the Environment, Energy, and Resources Section of the American Bar Association.

Ms. Borak earned her J.D., magna cum laude, from the University of Miami School of Law in 2005, and her B.S. in Environmental Policy from the University of Michigan in 1999. While at UM, she was Managing Editor of the UM Law Review from 2004-2005, was admitted to the Order of the Coif, and authored the article "The Legacy of 'Deep Throat': The Disclosure Process of the Whistleblower Protection Act Amendments of 1994 and the No Fear Act of 2002" while on the UM Law Review.

Don't miss this great opportunity!!!!!!!

Please RSVP to umhope@law.miami.edu if you would like to attend.

Lunch will be provided. Space is limited.

