

UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI BUSINESS LAW REVIEW

Dear Student:

Congratulations! You are in the top 12 percent of your class or section. Based on your outstanding performance, you are invited to become a walk-on candidate for the University of Miami Business Law Review (UMBLR).

The UMBLR is a fully accredited law review that is published at least twice a year and focuses on legal issues arising within the business world. These topics include, but are not limited to, corporations, tax, antitrust, bankruptcy, real estate, securities, insurance, labor, arts, entertainment, and sports law. Participation on the UMBLR is a challenging, yet extremely rewarding, experience. You will have the opportunity to develop important writing and editing skills, which will enable you to achieve both educational and professional distinction.

If you accept your invitation to become a candidate for membership on the UMBLR, you must send a check for $150.00 made payable to the University of Miami Business Law Review by Saturday, August 15th. This amount will cover your dues for the 2009-2010 school year and includes a subscription to the UMBLR. Please send your check to:

University of Miami Business Law Review
University of Miami School of Law
1311 Miller Drive, Room D-336
Coral Gables, FL 33124-8087

Acceptance as a walk-on candidate does not preclude you from participating in the Writing Competition for candidacy on another review. However, if we do not receive your check by August 15, 2008, your candidacy on the UMBLR will be forfeited. By sending the check for $150.00 to the UMBLR, you will secure your spot at our Mandatory Orientation meeting on Sunday, August 16, 2008.

If you have any questions about your walk-on candidacy, please contact me at (414) 234-1095 or at vickihruby@gmail.com. For information about the Writing Competition, please check the UM Law website (<http://currentstudents.law.miami.edu/stuorgs/writingcomp/>) for the official guidelines.

Again, congratulations on your success! We look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Vicki Hruby
