

International and Comparative Law Review
Walk-On Invitation

Dear Student:

Congratulations! On behalf of the 2009-2010 Executive Board of the University of Miami International and Comparative Law Review, I am pleased to invite you to join our review as a candidate. The international publication at a decidedly international school, we are proud to provide a high quality forum for the discussion and development of international law as well as a research tool for lawyers and scholars. Your academic performance has demonstrated the degree of dedication and commitment to high quality work that we constantly demand from our membership; accordingly, we are pleased to invite you to join our ranks.

To accept our offer of candidacy for membership, please send us a check for $140.00 (dues for the 2009-2010 school year) made out to the University of Miami International and Comparative Law Review by August 15, 2009; you may also hand-deliver your check to our mandatory orientation, which is held on the same day; though if you do so, please notify me via e-mail in advance so that I may secure your spot on the publication. Our mailing address is:

University of Miami International & Comparative Law Review
University of Miami School of Law
P.O. Box 248087
Coral Gables, Florida 33124

If we do not receive your acceptance by August 15, 2009 (after the writing competition), your position on the University of Miami International and Comparative Law Review will be forfeited. Your acceptance secures your spot at our mandatory orientation. Please keep these dates in mind and plan your summer accordingly.

The skills refined through working on our review will benefit you throughout your legal career, as will the prestige inherent in association with a law review. We look forward to hearing from you soon and wish you an enjoyable summer.

If you have any questions, feel free to contact me at (630) 464-3438 or mc2803@gmail.com.
