

Moot Court Observation at the Third District Court of Appeal

For every two (2) oral argument cases observed at the Court, one (1) observation point will be awarded. One case consists of argument from both the Appellant and the Appellee. A maximum of two (2) points total are available for observation at the Third District Court of Appeal. All the information below must be filled out including a short description of the issues in each case observed. This form must be submitted to the Moot Court Board (F401) by May 13, 2008.

Any false statements made in conjunction with this form will subject the student to referral to the Deans and Honor Council, result in automatic ineligibility to the Moot Court Board, and may be reported to the State Bar where the student applies.
