

The Order of Barristers
University of Miami Chapter

Class of 2006

The Order of Barristers is a national honorary organization whose purpose is the encouragement of oral advocacy, brief writing, and leadership skills. The Order provides national recognition for graduating seniors who have excelled in advocacy and service at their respective schools.

Through the efforts of William Gilmore, President of the Moot Court Board for 2004-2005, the UM Law Chapter of the Order of Barristers was reinstated after a period of inactivity. From a longer list of applicants who have distinguished themselves in a significant display of activities, competitions and awards, a committee of faculty and administrators nominated ten graduates to be included in the Order of Barristers for 2006.

These outstanding members of the Order of Barristers are:

Gabrila Alexa Brotz
Jared Brown
Elizabeth Lee Crabtree
Kimberly Ann Longford
Andrew Paul Marcus
Jennifer Ann McLoone
Hunter Glen Norton
David Andrew Olson
Ryan William Owen
Jonathan P. Salzberg

Congratulations!
